Dear Parents/Carers,

Platinum Jubilee

The children look very regal today dressed in red, white and blue. By the end of the day, they will have had a typically British picnic (coats on and looking at the clouds) and may have a better knowledge of music from the last 70 years of Queen Elizabeth's reign.

This week the children (Reception to Year 6) should have brought home these gifts to celebrate the Jubilee:

- A coin from Hollinswood & Randlay Parish Council
- A book from the government
- A pin badge from Telford & Wrekin Council

In some cases we have not been sent enough so will get these out when they arrive.

Cup Final

A big well done to our Year 3/4 girls football team who competed in yesterday's TWSCFA U9 Primary Schools Final V Newport Juniors. Although we didn't win, the girls can be proud of their achievements this year, finishing as 2nd best team in the County! A special mention to Ocean Walls who the organisers selected as Hollinswood's Player of the Month. She played the game with determination and a smile and never gave up!

Reminders

- The Year 6 who are going to Arthog, be ready on the first day back! The coach is booked to arrive at school at 9am.
- The Year 3/4s who are going to Coalport in the first week back – think about your packing!
- The children who are playing in the In Harmony Nucleo Orchestra on Sunday 5th June – have a great show!
- We break up today and return back to school on Monday 6th June

Enjoy the break, especially the long Bank Holiday.

Yours sincerely

G. Atkinson
