Dear Parents/Carers

For parents considered critical workers the government adapted their previous guidance on Friday 8th January.

Whilst the categories largely remain the same the emphasis on school attendance changed so it now states:

“Children with at least one parent or carer who is a critical worker can go to school or college if required, but parents and carers should keep their children at home if they can”.

The reason for this is to reduce social contact where possible to prevent transmission of the virus in our community.

So, for some of you it may mean only sending children in on the days when you work or not sending them in at all if someone is available to look after the children.

Contact us if you need to discuss the new guidance.

Yours sincerely

Mr Atkinson
Headteacher
